

A 3D perspective diagram of a rectangular box. The base of the box is a shaded gray trapezoid, representing a cross-section of a tapered container. The top surface of the box is white and rectangular. The side walls are also white. The diagram illustrates the geometry of a tapered container, such as a bucket or a specialized storage bin, used in the context of calculating its volume.

